

Conference Programme

Conference venue: Al. Mickiewicza 9B (4th & 5th floor rooms)

BETWEEN (STABLE) MEANINGS AND (UNSTABLE) INTERPRETATIONS

Thursday, 15 September 2016

9:30-9:50	Registration Al. Mickiewicza 9B, 5th floor
9:50-10:00	Conference opening (room 505)
10:00-11:00	Plenary (room 505) Prof. Robyn Carston, University College London, UK Underspecified word meaning, pragmatics and the lexicon
11:00-11:30	Coffee break (5th floor)
	Session 1 (room 401) Chair: Thorstein Fretheim	Session 2 (room 402) Chair: Andrzej Pawelec
11:30-12:00	Franck Floricic, Observations on holophrastic negation	Mira Czarnecka, Rendering social class in translation as a case of stable meanings and unstable interpretations
12:00-12:30	Helen Hue Lam Leung, The stable meanings of the utterance particles wo, laa, and zaa in Cantonese	Viktoria Komorovskaya, The psycholinguistic perspectives on creativity and L2 speaking: The centrality of meaning
12:30-13:00	Maryna Antonova, Enumeration in English economic discourse: A cognitive perspective	Eva Horch, Stable omissions with stable density profiles? An Information Theory-based exploration of article omission in German
13:00-14:30	Lunch break
	Session 3 (room 505) Chair: Joanna Blochowiak
14:30-15:00	Manuel Padilla Cruz, Conceptualising the unexpected perlocutionary effects of misuse or lack of vocabulary
15:00-15:30	Julia Poleeva, Prosody and cognitive processing of lecture discourse
15:30-16:00	Robin Lemke, Syntactic derivation or pragmatic enrichment? An experimental study on the syntax of fragments
16:00-16:15	Coffee break

	Session 4 (room 505) Chair: Ingrid Falkum
16:15-16:45	Jędrzej Grodniewicz, Gettierizing language understanding
16:45-17:15	Gregor Walczak, On cancellable and non-detachable meanings
17:15-17:45	Izabela Skoczen, Strategic speech and canons of construction
17:45-18:00	Coffee break
	Session 5 (room 505) Chair: Agnieszka Solska
18:00-18:30	Władysław Chłopicki, The implicit in humour: In search of the magic ingredient
18:30-19:00	Agnieszka Piskorska, Maria Jodłowiec, Humour and weak communication
19:15	Conference dinner – place TBA (individually paid by the participants)

Friday, 16 September 2016

9:00-10:00	Plenary (room 505) Prof. Herbert Colston , University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada Pragmatic effects and relevance theory: Finding stability in instability
	Session 6 (room 505) Chair: Manuel Padilla Cruz
10:00-10:30	Thorstein Fretheim and Wim van Dommelen, The interaction of syntactic and prosodic procedural constraints on the information structure of Norwegian utterances
10:30-11:00	Kate Scott, From procedural meaning to procedural showing
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
	Session 7 (room 505) Chair: Kate Scott
11:30-12:00	Ingrid L. Falkum and Franziska Köder, Children's processing of metonyms: evidence from eye movements and picture selection
12:00-12:30	Alison Hall, Context, questions and pragmatic enrichment
12:30-13:00	Joanna Blochowiak, Thomas Castelain and Jacques Moeschler, Experimental evidence for the relevance-theoretic treatment of conjunction 'and'
13:00-14:00	Lunch break
	Session 8 (room 505) Chair: Wladyslaw Chlopicki
14:00-14:30	Christoph Unger, Exclamatives, exclamations and speaker's meaning
14:30-15:00	Agnieszka Solska, Ambiguity, equivocation, multivocality: a case for a new descriptive label
15:00-15:30	Marta Kisielewska-Krysiuk, Lying and misleading – a relevance-theoretic perspective
15:30-16:00	Iwona Witczak-Plisiecka, Metaphorical imagery in action – the law and language interface
16:00-16:15	Coffee break
	Session 9 (room 505)

	Chair: Agnieszka Piskorska
16:15-16:45	Daniel Sax, Polish TO as an eventive operator: a procedural element of information structure?
16:45-17:15	Signe Rix Berthelin, Modality in Relevance Theory
17:15-17:45	Kaja Borthen and Christoph Unger, The meaning and interpretation of the Norwegian evidential marker 'visst'
17:45	Conference closing